

Henry Frederick Chosa, age 56, of Minneapolis passed away at his sister Loretta's home after a courageous battle with cancer and was surrounded by those who love him. He was preceded in death by his parents, Fred and Gladys Fisherman Chosa and 8 siblings. He is survived by his children Henry Frederick Chosa Jr., Robert Jackson, Edith Jackson and Rebecca Jackson, nine grandchildren, siblings Leonard (Annie) Fisherman of Laughlin, NV, Duane Chosa of Minneapolis, MN, Brian Chosa of Cass Lake, MN, James Chosa Sr. of Bloomington, MN, Arlene Chosa of Minneapolis, MN, Joyce Fisherman of St. Paul, MN, Loretta Chosa of Bloomington, MN and Peggy Chosa of Burnsville, many cousins, other relatives and friends.. Henry served in the Army, worked as a furniture mover and volunteered many years at the Catholic Charities food shelf. He enjoyed playing pool, fishing, playing bingo and going to the casino. He especially enjoyed spending time with friends and family. Henry will be missed by all who knew him.

An all night wake was held on Sunday, August 18, 2013 at the MCT Bldg at 1308 E Franklin Ave, Minneapolis. Melvin Eagle officiated. Interment at Fort Snelling National Cemetery. A heartfelt thank you to the Allina Hospice staff for their wonderful help. Chilson Funeral Home, Winsted, MN assisted the family with arrangements.