

Charles "Amik" A. Day

Charles "Amik" A. Day, 66, of Tower, a Bois Forte Band Member, Marten Clan, died Thursday, November 3, 2016 at St. Raphael's Health and Rehab in Eveleth. Visitation will begin on Sunday, November 6, 2016 at 4:00 p.m. and continue until the funeral service on Monday, November 7, 2016 at 10:00 am at the Vermillion Family Wellness Center. Lee "Obizaan" Staples will officiate. Burial will take place at Nett Lake Cemetery. Arrangements are with Range Funeral Home in Virginia. To sign the online guest book or to send condolences, please visit www.rangefuneralhomes.com.

Charles "Amik" was born March 30, 1950 in Cloquet to Clyde and Charlotte (Roy) Day. He was an ogitchidag, having participated in the BIA Takeover in 1971, President of the American Indian Folklore Group at Stillwater Prison, the Longest Walk, and many other AIM activities. Charles was involved in numerous heroic events such as; rescuing 2 children from a burning building in St. Paul, MN. He was a pipe carrier. He enjoyed hunting, fishing, and harvesting wild rice. He was a lifelong member of AIM, and a natural born leader. He is survived by his wife of 35 years, Judy. His children Cory King, Allen Olson, Charles McBain, Joseph McBain and Crystal Day. Six grandchildren. Other family members include Arlene Guslo, Stan Day, Sharon Day, Keith Porter, Michael Day, Cheryl Earley, Charlene Day-Castro, Janet Day, Dorene Day, Jeannie Day, and Lindsay Day. Also survived by Jim Clairmont, Jerry Dearly, Mitch Walkingelk, Mitchell Zephier, Mickey Aquash, Mark Aquash, Julie Uleburg, and best friend, cousins, Gene Boshey Jr., Doris Isham, John Day and numerous aunts and uncles. Charles was preceded in death by his parents, 3 brothers, 4 sisters, and 1 grandson.