

Myrna J. (Goodsky) Kelsey

Myrna J. (Goodsky) Kelsey, 75, of Minneapolis, passed away on Tuesday, November 19, 2013 at the Camden Care Center in Minneapolis. She was born Myrna Jeanette Goodsky on August 11, 1938, at Sugarbush, the daughter of Harold and Agnes (Caribou) Goodsky. She moved to Minneapolis at the age of 13, and has resided in the Twin Cities area for many years. Myrna worked for the Pillsbury Company and for Dayton's (she personally knew Gov. Mark Dayton). Her family fondly recalls that her greatest passion was that of going to garage sales, and that she saved most things she bought. Myrna had a found love of cats. In addition to her parents, she is preceded in death by a son, Darrell Goodridge; and 2 sisters, Mabel and Mildred Goodsky. Myrna is survived by her husband, Joseph; 5 children: Mahlon Goodridge, Francis Goodridge, Sandra Kelsey, Joseph Kelsey and Patrick Kelsey; 1 brother, Dayshun Goodsky; numerous grandchildren and numerous great grandchildren; along with nieces, nephews, many friends and her pet cats.

SERVICES: Traditional services will be at 10:00 AM Saturday (Nov. 23rd) at the Nett Lake Community Center, where visitation will begin after 4:00 PM Friday. The Spiritual Advisor will be Jim Windigo. Casket bearers will be family members. Interment will be in the Sugarbush Cemetery, near Orr. Arrangements are with Mlaker Funeral Home, Cook, Minnesota.
