

Myrrhia Jean Kleinbrook, age 22 of River Falls, died Friday, November 23, 2012 as the result of an auto accident. Myrrhia was born on April 7, 1990 in Minneapolis, MN, the daughter of Michael and Jodi (Boney) Kleinbrook. Throughout her high school years she was an employee of McDonalds in River Falls and enjoyed working with people everyday. Myrrhia coached girls hockey after high school and was a founding member of the Fusion Hockey Team in River Falls. Following graduation from River Falls High School, Myrrhia set out for California, where she attended college at Long Beach Community College and worked at Walmart and Walt Disney Land for two years. It was there that she learned a greater appreciation for her family. She recently moved back home to River Falls to be with her immediate family. Myrrhia was actively involved in the Native American community and danced in pow wows and just completed making her own jingle dress this summer. She loved animals, reading, photography, watching musicals, being with her family, traveling and spending time at home. Myrrhia was currently attending Inver Hills Community College for Nursing. She is survived by her parents Michael and Jodi Kleinbrook, brother Ryan and sister Grace, grandparents James and Linda Kleinbrook, and numerous aunts uncles and cousins. She is preceded in death by her grandmother "Gram" Mary Lou Boney and baby brother Seth.

A visitation will be held from 4-7pm at the Cashman-Hill Funeral Home, River Falls, on Tuesday, November 27, 2012. Burial will be at the Nett Lake Cemetery, Nett Lake, MN on Wednesday.

A small service will be held in Nett Lake before her burial.
