

Beverly Rose Miller (Lightfeather), Nayta Wau Jinok (Lady Floating Across the Lake), Minis Aanakadook (Island Cloud Woman), 65, of Bois Forte passed away Friday, April 19, 2019 at Essentia Health-Virginia.

She was born in Cloquet, MN and attended the Aurora-Hoyt Lakes High School.

Bev was a director at the Bois Forte Heritage Center and Cultural Museum since 2005.

Bev's hobbies included dancing, pow-wows, and family gatherings. She was a very giving person and loved nature. Bev was a member of the Grand Medicine Society.

Survivors include her husband Clint; six sisters, Diane Lightfeather, Harriet Lightfeather, Martha Kay Anderson, Ruth (Martin) Plata, Ronda Larson and Cindy Adams and several brothers on her side; brothers Mark Larson, Jeff Larson, Elroy Lightfeather, George Anderson, Kenneth Lightfeather and Aaron Lightfeather; father Ray Boshey and four brothers, Gary Boshey, Dale Boshey, Steve Boshey and Keith Boshey; and special cats and a dog named Moon.

She was preceded in death by mother Molly Wahwegon Anderson; father Harry Lightfeather, Sr., brothers Harold Lightfeather, Ernest Lightfeather, Harry Lightfeather Jr., Brian Anderson, Terrance Boshey and Jeff Boshey.

Wake will begin at 6 p.m. at the Wellness Center at Bois Forte on Lake Vermilion, and women are encouraged to wear skirts, and Tribal Rites will be at 10 a.m. on Tuesday, April 23, 2019. Burial will be at Bois Forte, Lake Vermilion.

Arrangements are with the Landmark Funeral Home in Virginia.