

Lindsey A. Quoetone Moon, 25, of Indian Point, near Orr, passed away unexpectedly at the Cook Hospital on Wednesday, Oct. 10, 2012. Lindsey was 21 weeks pregnant, with her baby named Camaira Analise Villebrun. Lindsey was born on Dec. 31, 1986, in Lawton, Okla., to Ronald and Shelly (Villebrun) Quoetone. She had spent her childhood years in Nett Lake, then lived in Lawrence, Kan., and in Oklahoma before returning to the Orr area in 2010. Lindsey worked as a receptionist for the RTC (Reservation Tribal Council), and as a teacher's aide at the Nett Lake School Head Start program. She was a member of the Bois Forte Band of Chippewa. Lindsey enjoyed music, playing both guitar and flute. One of her favorite pastimes was hanging out with her friends. She is survived by her two children, Mary and Isiah Moon in Oklahoma; her companion, David Villebrun Jr. of Indian Point; her parents, Shelly "Dolly Do" and Eric Strong of Indian Point and Ronald and Tammy Quoetone of Anadarko, Okla.; maternal grandparents, Eileen and Kenny Barney of Indian Point; three siblings, Brent (Danelle) Villebrun of Virginia, Ashley Goodsky of Nett Lake and Amanda Quoetone of Oklahoma; along with numerous aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.
