A Native American Prayer I give you this one thought to keep I am with you still – I do not sleep I am a thousand winds that blow I am the diamond glints on snow I am sunlight ripened grain I am the gentle autumn rain When you awake in the morning hush I am the swift uplifting rush Of quiet birds in circled flight I am the soft stars that shine at night Do not think of me as gone I am with you still – in each new dawn.
Hello Everybody, We didn't want to miss any person who helped make Adam's funeral a good send off. Both Alvin and I, and all of his sisters want to thank everyone. We greatly appreciate all who attended and anyone who wanted to attend but could not due to cold weather. Words cannot express how thankful we are. Che Migwitch, Alvin and Tina Sadewasser, Kim and James Brown, Barbie Sadewasser, and Rick and Taneika
