

Raymond Elmer, Villebrun, 59, of Nett Lake, MN, passed away on Sunday, February 25, 2018 at the Mayo Clinic Hospital, Rochester, MN-St. Mary's Campus.

Raymond "Ray Guy" Villebrun was born on February 24, 1959 at the hospital in Cook, MN to Milo "Buster" Villebrun and Jane (Dupree) Villebrun.

His family fondly recalls that he was an avid duck hunter, golfer, pool player, softball player, ricer. He loved to build model cars, and sing/karaoke. He loved to tear people up at cribbage. He loved to play slots.

Ray was very talented and held many jobs during his life. He was a sawmill laborer, janitor for RBC, Game Warden, firearms and explosives instructor, Police Officer, DNR Director, Tribal Council Member, and a shuttle bus driver for Fortune Bay employees.

He loved to watch his kids in sports, and would travel as much as possible to cheer them on.

Raymond was preceded in death by his dad Buster.

He is survived by his wife Victoria; his mother Jane Villebrun; 3 sons: Ray Jr., Aaron, and Ryne; 2 daughters Marjorie Villebrun and Nicole Fairbanks; grandson Christopher Fairbanks; brothers: Milo Jr., David "Bohz", William "Teben", and Earl; sisters; June, Effie, and Terry. And numerous nieces and nephews.

Traditional Services will be held on Saturday, March 3, 2018 at 10:00 AM at the Nett Lake Government and Services Center. The wake will begin on the eve before; Friday, March 2, 2018 at 5:00PM. To leave an online condolence visit www.mlakerfuneralhome.com
